

Lambton-Kent Composite School

 search.student-management.com/property/lambton-kent-composite-school/

Lambton-Kent Composite School is a community-oriented school that boasts an excellent learning environment staffed by caring, committed teachers who are focused on their students' success. The school offers their 450 students a well-rounded education by providing a wide range of academic and extra-curricular activities. Programming is in place to lead students to the post-secondary destination of their choice, whether it is an apprenticeship, college or university program. Lambton-Kent Composite School also offers many enrichment activities, including trips, workshops and contests, all put into place to complement their traditional academic programs.

About the Location: Dresden is an agricultural community of 2,800 residents, located in southwestern Ontario, Canada. The town features a number of special events each year, including weekly concerts on Thursday evenings during the summer months at Rotary Park. Downtown Dresden has many local stores and businesses that serve both tourists and residents. Dresden also provides easy access to larger cities and attractions such as Toronto, Ottawa, Montreal, and Niagara Falls. In terms of climate, the weather in south-western Ontario can be compared is similar to the climate found in New York City.

Extracurricular Activities: Arts Council, Athletic Association, Diversity Club, Drama Club, Environmental Action Committee, Interact Club, Scrap-booking Club, Sound and Technology Club and Student Council.

Sports Offered: Badminton, Basketball, Cross Country, Golf, Hockey, Soccer, Track and Field and Volleyball.