

Harry Ainlay High School

 search.student-management.com/property/harry-ainlay-high-school/

Harry Ainlay is a large high school, ideally located in southern Edmonton. Harry Ainlay facilities are recognized as being among the best in the province. The school is equipped with computer labs, a fitness and weight training facility, a drama theater, two music labs, a language lab, a pottery studio, a cafeteria, and a bookstore.

About the Location: The high school is located in Edmonton, Alberta, Canada in the Royal Gardens Community. The school is in a suburb-like community, south of the urban portion of Edmonton. Community facilities adjacent to the school include a swimming pool, arena, playing fields, and tennis courts. The region has warm summers and cold winters. Precipitation is generally mild but snowfall should be expected in the wintertime.

Extracurricular Activities: History Movie Club, Habitat for Humanity, Games Club, Me to We, Amnesty International, Knitting Club, Anime Club, High School Model United Nations, Equal Rights Ainlay, The Titanic Newspaper, and Encounters With Canada

Sports Offered: Badminton, Basketball, Cross Country, Football, Golf, Swimming, Track, Wrestling, Volleyball

