

St. Joseph High School

 search.student-management.com/property/st-joseph-high-school/

The St. Joseph High School is a high school in Saskatoon, Canada, and part of the University Heights Suburban Centre. Their motto is Once a Guardian, Always a Guardian and reflects the Catholic faith that is preached throughout the school by faculty as well as students. Students have access to school counselors, social workers, home-school liaison workers and learning assistance personnel in order to make sure they have a successful and meaningful tenure over at St. Joseph High School.

About the Location: St. Joseph High School is located in Saskatoon. Saskatoon is a city in central Saskatchewan, Canada, on the South Saskatchewan River. The 2011 Census had the city population as 222,189, making it the largest city in Saskatchewan. The city is very vibrant and provides ample opportunity for people to find forms of entertainment. The city is home to a number of professional and amateur sports teams. Saskatoons major arts venue is TCU Place, which is located adjacent to Midtown Plaza downtown. It is also home to the Saskatoon Symphony Orchestra.

Extracurricular Activities: St. Joseph High School has a number of clubs and extracurricular activities for students to partake in. Some of these include music clubs, art clubs and drama clubs as well as specialized social groups.

Sports Offered: Badminton, Basketball, Cross Country, Football, Soccer, Track, Volleyball

